

Join The Revolution!

April - Celebrating 240 years of the Danbury Raid!

Exhibit at the Westport Historical Society, April 1 to May 29

April 6 at 7:00 at WHS

The Making of a Nation: Revolutionary-era Art from Connecticut Museums by Robin Frank
Donation: $10; Reservations Recommended

April 18 at 7:00 at WHS

Westport's Uncivil Revolution: A Family Divided by Politics, Smugglers, Snitches and Tory Raiders
Talk by Author Jonathan Walker with an Introduction by Eve Potts, Donation: $10;
Reservations Recommended

April 20 at 12:00 at WHS

Lunch and Learn: Monument Madness Minute Man Monument By Kathie Bennewitz
Donation: $10; Reservations Recommended

April 23 at 5:00

Music George Washington Would Have Heard
Greens Farms Congregational Church
Donation: $10; Reservations Recommended

April 26 at 7:00, WHS

Lecture on the Danbury Raid by Ed Hynes
Donation: $10; Reservations Recommended

May 7 from 9 to 4

Bus Tour of the Danbury Raid, Start at Compo Beach.
Reservation Required

Throughout April

"Food" activities around Westport area will include restaurants serving Revolutionary Dishes for $17.77
Children's 1777 Cooking Classes.

At Westport Library

April 22, from 10 to 4

Maker Faire will have section on 18th century manufacturing

April 23 at 3:00

at Westport Library

Book Discussion: "Bunker Hill" by Nathaniel Philbrick. J. Bruce McGuirk will lead Discussion

At Westport Senior Center

April 7 from 1:30 to 3:00

Lecture: Religion during the Period of the American Revolution by Lydia Will-Ciollo PhD.

At Westport Arts Center

Coordinating a really cool art contest for middle school students

THE BRITISH ARE COMING!

For more info go to westporthistory.org or call 203-222-1424