SUMMARY: The Westport History, Events, and Topics Collection documents the history of the town of Westport through publications, event documentation, and topical files compiled by the Westport Museum.

HISTORICAL NOTE:

Like many other towns in New England, Westport's roots are in the Native Americans who frequented the area years ago. The colonial settlers came from three surrounding towns – Norwalk, Fairfield, and Weston, parts of which comprised Westport. The river was the dividing line between Norwalk and Fairfield, and vital to farmers as a pathway to markets for their produce. A small community of wharves, warehouses, stores and a tavern grew up on both sides of the river to become the Village of Saugatuck. The first church built in Westport was the Green's Farms Congregational Church, in 1711, and it served as the focal point of all town activities, from running the schools to collecting the taxes. After the Revolutionary War, the Village of Saugatuck began to grow as a shipping center. In the 1830s, Daniel Nash, a leading resident, together with 130 other villagers made an application to the Connecticut General Assembly to incorporate Westport as a town. The charter was granted May 28, 1835.

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

This collection gathers together a variety of sources of documentation of Westport and its surrounding area. Some of the documents are purposefully composed writings about various aspects of Westport history while other documents were gathered from events. An alphabetical sequence of topical files contains notes and documents compiled by Westport Museum for History and Culture staff over the years.
